Veterans Day Observance at Woodbury County Courthouse
Thursday, November 11, 2021
11:00 A. M.

The Woodbury County Commission of Veteran Affairs is sponsoring a Veterans Day observance at 11:00 A.M. on Thursday, November 11, 2021 at the Woodbury County Courthouse. The speaker for the observance will be Chief Master Sergeant Joseph M. Donovan, Commander Chief Master Sergeant at the 185th Air Refueling Wing.

Master of Ceremonies, Travis Morgan, will emcee the event. Others participating in the observance will be the 185th Air Refueling Wing Honor Guard, POW/MIA ceremony by American Legion Post 697, Invocation and Benediction by Major Cory Van Sloten, Chaplain for the 1-113th CAV, Music by Katrina Donovan and taps by Carey Anderson.

Posts and Chapters of various Woodbury County Veterans organizations are encouraged to be present with their colors and will be recognized.

Courthouse doors will open for the observance at 10:30 A.M. and will close again immediately following the observance. The Veterans Day Program will be live streamed on the office Facebook page.
